Background: 29 CFR Part 38, complaint processing procedures must provide for local processing of discrimination complaints. Even though the procedures list the formal process of resolution, the State encourages informal resolution at all levels. There is nothing in the formal process that denies any individual the right to seek resolution through civil action authorized by federal, state and local laws, and the complainant can file directly with the Civil Rights Center (CRC).

Policy and Procedure:

PRINCIPLES GOVERNING COMPLAINTS:

- A. Consultation is available at the state level through its Equal Opportunity Officer prior to complaint filing and during the informal process of a complaint resolution.
- B. Complaints may be filed at the local or federal level. Complainants who elect to file at the local level must allow the local entity 90-days to process the complaint.

- C. In compliance with the EO provisions of WIOA, all registrants, applicants, eligible applicants for employment or program participation, employees, sub-recipients and participants shall be provided with the Participant/Employee Nondiscrimination Signature Notice which identifies the right to file and the time frames. [29 CFR 38.34] The signature notice shall include the State and local Equal Opportunity Officers' names, addresses and telephone numbers. [29 CFR 38.35]
- D. CRC Complaint Information & Privacy Act Consent forms and grantees' policy for filing discrimination complaints shall be easily accessible to all employees and participants. [29 CFR 38.19]
- E. No person filing a complaint shall be the victim of harassment, reprisal, coercion or any form of discrimination or retaliation for having filed a complaint or having furnished information to or assisted or participated in an investigation, review or hearing. [29 CFR 38.19] It is a person's right to file a complaint and express their opinion in a legal allegation.
- F. Complainants have the right to withdraw their complaint in writing at any time prior to the formal hearing.
- G. Complaints may be amended to clarify issues, but not to add new allegations.
- H. Complainants have the right to be represented by a properly delegated person of their own choosing at all levels of the complaint process (at their own expense). [29 CFR 38.71]

1. A statement of the reasons for the determination; [29 CFR 38.74(a)]
