Workforce Innovations for a New Nevada	Fund managed by Governor's Office of Economic Development (GOED) to address industry business needs by rectaing, customizing or expanding workforce training programs that will impart the skills needed by employers. This fund makes critical strategic investments in industry partnerships to ensure that new and existing businesses in Nevada will be able to recruit and retain qualified employees.  The State, through Workforce Innovation for a New Nevada (WINN) funds, will addresses resource gaps in industry driven partnerships with education providers to enable:  1. Accelerated execution of new, revised or expanded training program 2. Delivery of skilled workers into high-wage and high-skill employment opportunities new to Nevada  3. Infrastructure to support a program platform to deliver current and future technological skills  4. Sustainability of program design to continue to foster pipeline of skilled workers	Economic Development	Blemial funding by State Fiscal Year (e.g., 7/1/19- 6/30/21)		limitation; projects propose and define target populations and eligibility for review and approval by GOED.	Focus is on unemployed; and underemployed; proposals must provide plans on workforce integration, veterans, recipients of public assistance, non- traditional workforce participation (female), equity and access	1.958 training participants to date	Biemial report provided to the Legislature must include:     - Summary of Expenses     - Outcomes including persons trained, persons employed, avergage wages     - Evaluation of workforce diversity action plans	Technology - $1.2mil	creates limits on when/what can be funded Educational providers have not been able to collect data from some initiative partners	The use of State funds for training activities in the SNAP ExT population has unlocked additional federal funding for workforce training programs. Over $50,000 in unrestricted funds that expand opportunity and innovation results from GOED's efforts to connect funded programs to DWSS.  WINN has statutory authority to utilize the Fund for Incumbent Worker (place-based) training with an employer match required.
